

Tuesday 4th November

Today Bassingburn House came together to design our new house shield. We used the ICT suit to research all about Astley Castle's history. We found out some really interesting facts about the people who have lived there and how the building has changed over the years.

Astley Castle